

Grading Rubrics

Constructed-Response Question

The following rubrics may be useful when scoring Go Figure? worksheet questions that are not multiple choice.

Two-Point Constructed-Response Rubric

2	Complete	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The response includes the correct answer. The work or explanation shows an appropriate method of solving the problem. The answer(s) are appropriately labeled.
1	Partial	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The response provides the correct solution but it is not supported with numbers, words, or pictures as required. The response provides partial evidence of solving the problem using an appropriate method; however, the solution is incomplete or slightly flawed.
0	Inadequate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The response provides inadequate evidence of solving the problem using an appropriate method. The response demonstrates major flaws in reasoning or irrelevant information.

Four-Point Constructed-Response Rubric

4	Complete	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The response includes the correct answer. The work or explanation shows an appropriate method of solving the problem. The answer(s) are appropriately labeled.
3	Clear	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The response provides clear evidence of solving the problem using an appropriate method; however, the solution may be incomplete or slightly flawed.
2	Partial	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The response provides the correct solution but it is not supported with numbers, words, or pictures as required. The response provides partial evidence of solving the problem using an appropriate method; however, the solution is incomplete or slightly flawed.
1	Minimal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The response provides minimal evidence of solving the problem using an appropriate method; however, the solution is incomplete or flawed.
0	Inadequate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The response provides inadequate evidence of solving the problem using an appropriate method. The response demonstrates major flaws in reasoning or irrelevant information.