Ms. Kern,

This document should serve as a Written Reprimand as a result of my findings about your actions during an investigative hearing on March 20, 2015. I have found that on that date you were less than honest with me while answering some questions I asked of you.

1. You claimed that you were never present when any students spent the night at your house
2. You claimed that _____ never spent the night at your house.
3. You claimed the only gift you ever provided for any student was a bible.

I found your responses to lack honesty. From here forward I am directing you to answer all questions from me with honesty, and to fully answer any questions I ask. Any further misconduct of any type by you will result in further disciplinary action up to and including termination.

I resent the fact that Mr. Christman labeled me as a liar. I answered his questions to the best of my knowledge and then followed up our conversation with the person responsible for the students staying at my house.

I contacted the person who brought students to my house and asked if [redacted] stayed over. She said she did not.

I also asked if it was during the time I went to Kentucky and she said it was.

I conveyed this to Christman.

She then called back and said that it was not while I was in Kentucky and that [redacted] had stayed. I understand that this would make me look like a liar but I answered to the best of my knowledge and tried to get clarification.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Christman does not believe this explanation but I can see how it would look dishonest.
