

High School Discussion Tool

Television Reporter

Name: _____

CAREER AWARENESS:

Before viewing the video: In the middle column, write what you already know about each question.

After viewing the video: In the last column, write additional information that you learned from the video.

	What I already know	What I learned from the video
1. Does a television reporter tell a story or report the news?
2. What sort of things would a television reporter need to gather?
3. What is involved in putting together a news package?
4. Who is a television reporter responsible to?
5. Why should a television reporter be objective?
6. Why does it help a television reporter to be curious?
7. Why is Ohio a good place for television reporters?
8. How could you use world languages in this career?

CAREER EXPLORATION

Explore this career more deeply by finding the answers to these questions:

	Information that I found
1. What type of education would you need after high school if you wanted to become a Television Reporter? Technical school? College? Graduate school? etc.
2. What is the demand for this type of job (in Ohio? in the United States? Internationally?)
3. How much does this career pay?
4. What schools or colleges in Ohio offer programs or courses in this area?
5. What skills would you need for this career?
6. What level of world language knowledge would be necessary or helpful in this career? Why?

CAREER PLANNING

Research the courses you would need in order to prepare for a career as a Television Reporter.

	Information that I found
1. Visit the website of an Ohio (or other) college or school that offers a degree in this field.	Name of college/website:
2. What are the types of courses that are required for a degree in this field?
3. Are there required courses for this degree that surprised you? Which ones?
4. What scholarship, intern or research opportunities are available that would help prepare you for this career?
5. During your research, what similar careers did you see that might be of interest to you?
6. What courses are offered at our high school that would help prepare you for a career as a television reporter? How do the courses that you select early in life open or close job opportunities for you in the future?	